To,
Respected Well-wisher,

Nifty Punch going successfully completes their 2ND year on Jan 1'2014. In this period we are generated 256% return on investment and 168% on capital were market return was 6-15 %.

We create this organization for innovation in financial sector and find some good strategies for trading in secondary market or investment. But to increase our service revenue and customer base, we did commercialize this organization.

I got good numbers but satisfaction leave somewhere. So we are adopting best bidder policy for financial year 2014. After adopt this policy, our active customer number will not more than hundred. And pricing of our subscription will decide by customers.

In this process, we offer one month subscription in Rs. 3000 (actual subscription fee is Rs. 15000 for INDEX FUTURE, STOCK FUTURE, OPTION and Currency FUT) to all our existing clients, new registration of free trial via website or previous registration of free trial/clients. After the One month services, we welcome your feedback and ask the price of our services in manner of monthly basis. And top five hundred bidder price average will be our service price for next one year.

I have an honor to lay down the following a little praise under your kindness the entire year and giving the splendid starting.

For maximum participation please forward this mail to all you're known.....
